

COLOR IDIOMS

TO BE BLACK AND BLUE :

to be covered in bruises

"It was the first time I had ridden a bike and I was black and blue after it!"

TO BE BLUE:

To be sad or depressed

"My favorite show has ended and now I'm feeling blue."

OUT OF THE BLUE:

as a surprise, unexpected

"The news of their divorce came out of the blue!"

TO HAVE GREEN FINGERS:

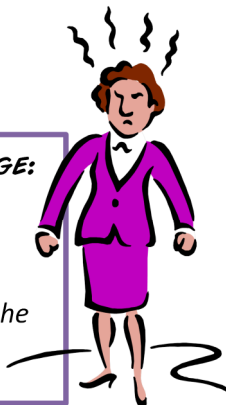

to be good at gardening

"Our garden is becoming lovely. My mother has very green fingers."

TO BE/TO GO PURPLE WITH RAGE:

to be very angry

"When she found out that her husband had lost all his money, she went purple with rage."

TO GO RED:

to blush

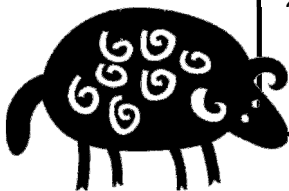

"He always goes red when he sees her."

TO BE THE BLACK SHEEP:

to be a disgrace for the family

"He's never achieved anything in his life; he is the black sheep of the family."

TO BE GREEN WITH ENVY:

to be jealous

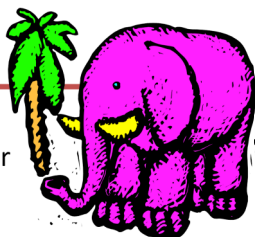

"That girl is green with envy because of my very good grades."

TO SEE PINK ELEPHANTS:

to see things that are only in your imagination

"No one believes him because he is always seeing pink elephants."

WITH FLYING COLORS:

with great or total success

"My sister graduated with flying colors, and now we are going to celebrate!"