

She doesn't know many people.

Grammar Simple present and present continuous; non-action verbs

Vocabulary Personality adjectives

Function Describe yourself and others

Get started

1 Do you have any friends from other countries?

Presentation

2 Listen and read along. Where's Jenna from?

Greg: Hi, Polly. How's it going?

Polly: Hi, guys. Good, thanks.

Sergio: What are you doing here?

Polly: I 'm meeting a new girl in my class.

She doesn't know many people yet.

Sergio: What's her name?

Polly: Jenna. She's British. She's staying here for a year.

Greg: What's she like?

Polly: She's really friendly and she's smart, too.

She speaks three languages.

Greg: She sounds a little scary.

Polly: Don't worry, she's cool.

Sergio: Is that her, over there?

Polly: Yes, it is. Hi, Jenna! Here we are! These are my friends, Greg and Sergio. Greg's the one with the skateboard.

Jenna: Nice to meet you.

Phrases

1 03 Listen and repeat.

- How's it going? • Good, thanks.
- What's she like? • Nice to meet you.

Comprehension

3 Answer T for true, F for false, or NI for no information.

- 7   1 Greg, Sergio, and Polly are friends.
      2 Jenna has lots of friends in the U.S.
      3 Greg and Sergio go to Polly's school.
      4 Jenna is staying in the U.S. for a year.
      5 Jenna knows Greg and Sergio.

Solve it!

4 Read the conversation in Exercise 2 again. Label the people (A–D) in the photo.

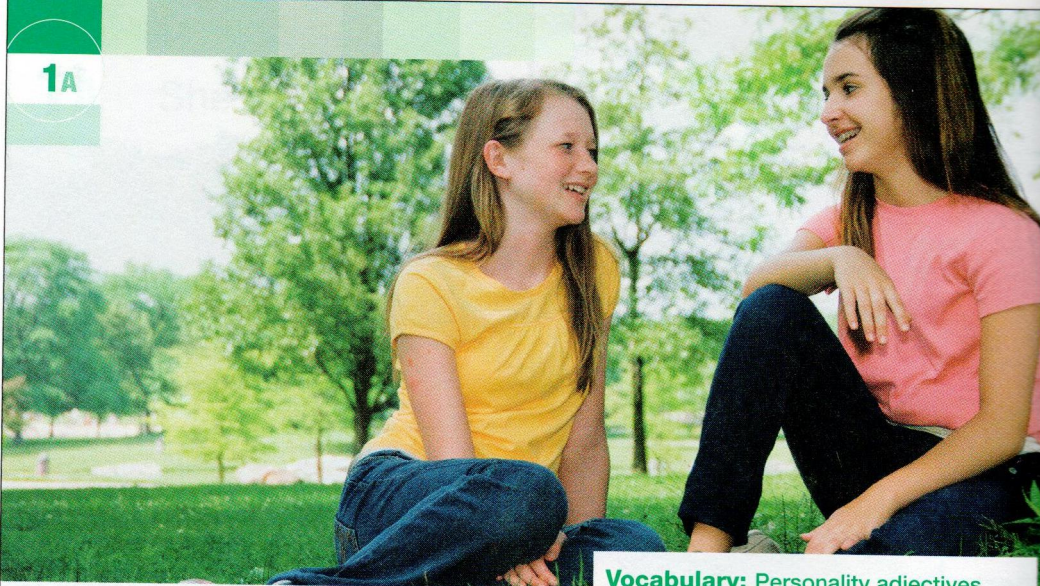

B

C

D

Presentation

5 04 Listen and read along. What's Jenna going to do?

Greg: Bye, Polly. See you tomorrow.

Sergio: Nice to meet you, Jenna. Bye!

Jenna: They're nice.

Polly: Yes, they're a little stuck-up sometimes, but they're really fun. I like them a lot.

Jenna: Do they go to our school?

Polly: No, they don't, but we hang out together at the club a lot.

Jenna: What club?

Polly: The youth club. We go there every week. Do you want to come next time?

Jenna: Yes, thanks. That would be great!

Phrases

1 05 Listen and repeat.

- See you tomorrow.
- hang out
- That would be great!

Comprehension

6 Write the answers.

- Who are a little stuck-up? Greg and Sergio
- Who goes to Jenna's school? _____
- Who meet every week? _____
- Who gives an invitation? _____
- Who accepts an invitation? _____

Vocabulary: Personality adjectives

7a Review Look at the Word bank on page 123. Then copy the chart in your notebook and write the words in the correct lists.

smart	annoying

b 106 Extension Listen and repeat. Then add the words to the lists in Exercise 7a. Which three words could go in both lists?

- boring • cheerful • confident • dishonest
- fun • honest • impatient • intelligent
- modest • moody • patient • relaxed • selfish
- sensitive • serious • sociable • stuck-up • talkative

8 PAIRS Describe the people using the adjectives in Exercise 7.

- John thinks he's fantastic.
A: What's John like?
B: He's stuck-up. He thinks he's fantastic.
- Andy and Sue never tell the truth.
- Ben gets good grades in school.
- Kate never stops talking.
- Alex and Shaun like meeting people.
- Fay's happy one minute, and sad the next.
- Nick and Penny don't think about other people.

Pronunciation: Word stress

9 Go to page 125.

Speak

10 Talk about yourself, a friend, and someone on TV. Use personality adjectives.

Grammar

Simple present and present continuous

She speaks three languages. (simple present)

I 'm talking to the new girl. (present continuous)

She doesn't know many people yet. (simple present)

She 's staying here for a year. (present continuous)

We often play basketball after school. (simple present)

Non-action verbs

We don't normally use these verbs in the present continuous:
be, believe, forget, hate, hear, know, like, love, mean, need, prefer, see, sound, understand, want.

Go to page 127, Master your grammar.

Practice

11 Complete Jenna's e-mail with the correct verb forms.

Hi!

How are you? I <sup>1</sup> hope (hope) you're all OK.

I <sup>2</sup> _____ (write) this in my bedroom. Here's a picture of me outside the house we're renting in Seattle.

My new school is a little strange, but I <sup>3</sup> _____ (like) it. About a thousand kids <sup>4</sup> _____ (go) there. I <sup>5</sup> _____ (learn) some names slowly, but I <sup>6</sup> _____ (not know) many people yet. One girl is really cool. Her name is Polly, and we usually <sup>7</sup> _____ (sit) together in class. She's very athletic. She <sup>8</sup> _____ (go) swimming three times a week. They <sup>9</sup> _____ (play) a lot of football, sorry, "soccer," here. My brother Bart and his new friends <sup>10</sup> _____ (play) it right now.

I have to go! Mom <sup>11</sup> _____ (call) me. She <sup>12</sup> _____ (cook) dinner, and she <sup>13</sup> _____ (want) some help.

Write soon.

Love,

Jenna

Speak

12 PAIRS Take turns talking about somebody in your family. Use these questions to help you. Your partner can take notes.

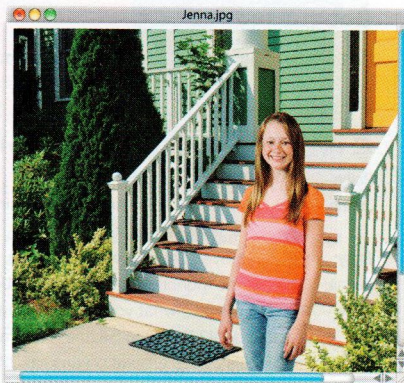

- What's he or she like?
- What does he or she do every day?
- What's he or she doing right now? (Guess!)
- What does he or she usually do on weekends?

My brother's intelligent, but he's really lazy. He goes to high school. Right now, he's in his math class. On weekends, he plays lots of video games.

Write

13 On a piece of paper, write about the person your partner described.

Sara's brother is...

Extra practice

- Student Book, page 112, Lesson 1A
- Language Builder: WB, page 2; GB, page 103
- Student CD-ROM, Unit 1